📺 My Youtube Channel

A first class BA Film Production graduate offering a wealth of experience in video editing, grading, motion graphics and brand design. I bring visuals to life with my keen eye for detail, technical prowess and conviction in my ideas. I have secured relevant work as a runner on a commercial set, local freelance commissions, as well as a paid placement as a video production intern. Combined with my ambitious academic record, I have proven myself as a resourceful team player with necessary skills to thrive within the film and TV production industry.
